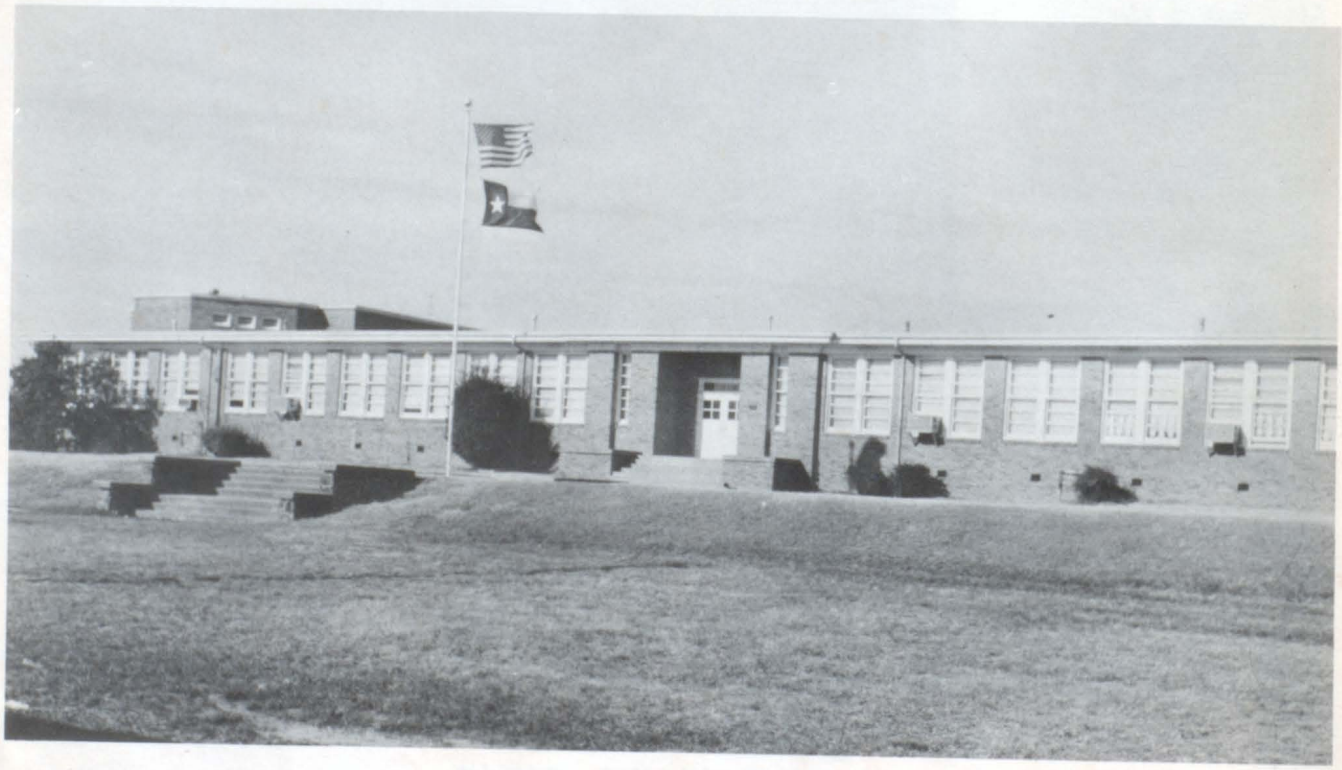
OUR SCHOOL



JIVE TALKIN'

Big Eight
The Jive Trive!

Our 8th grade year
We didn't shed a tear.
And there wasn't a fear
Of the oncoming year.

We had a ball,
And Jackson that wasn't all.
It was the year of 10-4
And a whole lot more.

Winning some football games
Brought our guys lots of fame.
I really didn't understand
Why we didn't beat Van!

And what about Math?
Please don't ask.
If you ask me,
Boy it's a task!

Hey-y-y Mr. Kot-ter
Made the scene
Along with Ay-y-y.
Boy, what things to say!

And so ends my little story.
And if you take my advice,
Listen carefully,
I won't repeat it twice.

The 8th grade class of '76
Are in disguise.
A group of outa-site,
Kid dyn-o-mites!!!!

Those Were the Days . . . .

Once upon a time,
(If ya know what I mean),
There was a little brick building
In Grand Saline.

This little brick building
Was the Junior High School,
Where all the 8th grade kids
Were funky and cool.

All the teachers were over
the hill,
Take for instance,
Mrs. Maciel.
Some of the teachers were kinda keen,
Like the math wizard,
Mr. King.

Mr. Whatley's head was full of nuts and bolts,
Like his favorite team,
the Baltimore Colts.
Whathead pulled out one of his hankies
When he heard the Red's defeated the Yankees.

There there's "Big Daddy",
Mr. Luce,
He's one guy that really
hangs loose.
Mr. Yates with his Tom
Landry hat,
He's one cool dude that knows where it's at.

Our story has been partly told.
We're ready now to go on from here.
We're looking forward to better things
During our future years.

WHERE THE ACTION IS!

MEMORIES IN THE CORNER OF MY MIND . . .

Loyal and True

Loyal and true,
We pledge allegiance to you
This is our motto:
We are all for one
And all for Alma Mater.
Here's to our school,
And long on high may she rule.
Forever more you will find us
Always Loyal and True!

Remember

Chet measuring Shelley's tongue.
Asking Mr. Yates a simple question and getting an hour long answer.
Hap wanting to put Snoopies all over the Indian annual.
50's day being a bummer.
Bonehead using big words.
Mrs. Ward throwing away all the good magazines.
The graffiti on the bathroom walls.
Wearing turtle necks after a long weekend.
Seeing Adam as the star in the pig film.

Mr. Luce's maps that look as if they might jump out and bite you.
Hamburger chasing Melanie in science.
Chet's loud mouth.
Robin and his banana batmobile.
Friends that help you thru the hardest days.
The want to be a Freshman.
Dogpiling the seventh graders.
Mr. Harris' reckless driving.
Feeling sorry for Mr. Luce when nobody laughs at his jokes.
Mike Mitchell drooling over someone else's candy.
Sliding down the hall!
Jackie Barker's daily dozes.
The cat's meow—"Larry Whiskers."
Mrs. Maciel's tons of homework.
Laurie eavesdropping on the teachers.
Mr. Anderson's office.
Steve's face turning red at every embarrassing thing.
Walking into a classroom with an air of superiority, the falling over something.
Meeting a guy from another town and finding out he has girl friend in every town.
Chet's loud mouth.
Elton Joan.
Gay Lynn flirting with J. J. Jackson.
Mrs. Maciel's Aggie jokes.
And we remember Mr. Anderson's talks on respect and discipline and gratitude and . . . . . .
