Test Prayer
Now I lay me down to study,
I pray the Lord I won't go nutty.
And if I fail to learn this junk,
I pray the Lord that I won't flunk.
But if I do, don't pity me at all,
Just lay my bones in the Study Hall.
Tell my teacher I've done my best,
Then pile my books upon my chest.
Now I lay me down to rest.
If I should die before I wake,
That's one less test I'll have to take!

Open and Shut

Oh, I love my locker dearly—
What a handy place to stash
All my notebooks, pens, and pencils,
Also throw away my trash,
And take care of all my textbooks,
(There are only seventeen).
Plus the lunch I packed last Monday.
(Which by now is slightly green).
Yes, I love my locker dearly,
Although, frankly, I suppose,
I would love it even better
If I could get the door to close.
